Appeal Action Check List

Before submitting to the Financial Aid office, be sure you have provided the following:

- Provide signed letter of explanation (outlining current family situation)
- Provide supporting documentation (as outlined on front of this form)
- Provide W2s, schedule C, F and 1099 (if applicable) forms for student*
- Provide W2s, schedule C, F and 1099 (if applicable) forms for parent(s)*
- Return completed 2021-2022 Verification Worksheet
- Return 2021-2022 Award Acceptance, where student has accepted all offered aid (families who do not accept offers of "self help" such as Direct Federal Loans, are not eligible for an appeal)

We/I certify that the information contained in our appeal packet accurately portrays our family's current financial situation. We/I understand that should the family's situation change from that represented here we/I must notify the office of any such change, such as but not limited to an unemployed parent finding new work, one time income being repeated or unemployment benefits being extended.

Starting the appeals process does not guarantee that more funding will be provided. Any balance currently on the student's account should be settled by the stated due date to avoid penalties.
