

Newman Gym Access and Usage Policy (Summer Hours)

To ensure the safety and security of our facilities, access to Newman Gym is restricted to members of the Husson University community, including:

- Currently enrolled Husson University students
- Husson University employees
- Dependent children of Husson University employees

Use of Newman Gym by individuals outside of these groups is prohibited unless specifically authorized by the Department of Athletics or University Administration.

Summer Building Access Schedule

Effective June 26, 2026 through August 10, 2026

Newman Gym will be secured during the following hours:

Monday through Friday

- Locked: 7:00 p.m. – 5:15 a.m.

Saturday

- Locked: 2:00 p.m. Saturday – 10:45 a.m. Sunday

Sunday

- Open: 10:45 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.
- Locked: 1:00 p.m. Sunday – 5:15 a.m. Monday

During these locked periods, members of the Husson University community may continue to access Newman Gym using their valid Husson University Identification Card. Individuals are responsible for ensuring that doors are secured after entry and may not provide access to individuals who are not authorized users of the facility.

Access privileges are intended solely for the cardholder. Sharing identification cards, allowing unauthorized individuals into the facility, or misuse of access privileges may result in the suspension of facility access and/or disciplinary action.

Individuals found using the facility without proper affiliation with Husson University or in violation of facility policies may be asked to leave and may be subject to additional restrictions or disciplinary action.

The Department of Athletics reserves the right to modify facility hours, restrict access, or close the facility for university events, maintenance, camps, or other operational needs.
